Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 1-11, 17-19, 21 and 22, drawn to an endoscope apparatus, classified in class 600, subclass 146.
 - II. Claims 12-15 and 20, drawn to an endoscope apparatus, classified in class 600, subclass 102.
 - III. Claim 16, drawn to an endoscope apparatus, classified in class 600, subclass 131.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions I through III are unrelated. Inventions are unrelated if it can be shown that they are not disclosed as capable of use together and they have different modes of operation, different functions, or different effects (MPEP § 806.04, MPEP § 808.01). In the instant case the different inventions are not capable of use together in that each invention claims its own self-contained, operational device that includes at least an insert portion. The disclosure fails to mention two separate insert portions used together. Furthermore, each invention operate and function differently as clearly shown by the significantly different claim limitations.

Particularly, Invention I is directed to a combination including a element detachable to a working channel of the insert portion. Invention II is directed to a combination including an element for allowing the insert portion to be connected to something. Invention III is directed to a combination including a display on the proximal end of the insert portion. These distinctly different features cause the endoscope apparatuses to function and operate differently.

3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification and the search required for any one Group is not exclusively required for any other Group, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper. To evidence the requirement of "serious burden", it is noted that the application of such requirement affects both search and examination of the claimed patentably distinct inventions. Therefore, as much as the search for the distinct inventions might overlap to a certain extent, there still exists the burden of separate analysis of the prior art references for each distinct invention, as well as a separate written analysis in the Office Action. The Examiner takes the position that the inventions differ enough that one single reference would not likely disclose an endoscope apparatus with all three inventions. Thus, separate searches, separate references and separate written analysis of each invention will most likely be required. Unfortunately, the Examiner is only given enough time for one search and written analysis for each application. Therefore, a serious burden would exist.

4. Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).
